West Fort Worth Production Manager

JOB DESCRIPTION

The Hills Church exists to make and grow followers of Jesus. We're passionate about using our talents for God's purposes and that's why we've dedicated our careers to ministry.

We are looking for a part time Production Manager at our West Fort Worth campus. If you love working with students and adults, have a passion to grow and mentor volunteers, and enjoy working in the fast paced live production environment, this may be the position for you!

You are:

- Experienced in live production (audio, video, and lighting)
- A great teacher and mentor
- Attentive to details and great at communicating
- Quick to troubleshoot issues

The perfect fit:

- Adaptable to last minute requests or changes, even in high stress situations
- Willing to take ideas and make them your own
- Excited to work with all ages of volunteers
- Flexible in your schedule

You will:

- Schedule volunteers to serve weekly in Planning Center
- Produce Sunday and Wednesday services by overseeing volunteers
- Teach volunteers how to operate ProPresenter, lighting consoles, and video switchers
- Create a healthy culture and environment in our West Fort Worth Production team
