

Missions Financial Coordinator

The Hills Church exists to make and grow followers of Jesus. We're passionate about using our talents for God's purposes and that's why we've dedicated our careers to ministry.

We're currently looking for the right person to join our finance team to help manage the financial policies and procedures for The Hills' missions and church planting efforts. If you are an accountant who loves missions, enjoys people and likes to be challenged, this may be the position for you.

You are:

- Detail oriented
- Highly organized and particularly efficient with time management
- People oriented
- Self-Motivated
- Missions minded

You will:

- Be the financial expert for the Kingdom Expansion department
- Help The Hills remain compliant in international financial affairs
- Be the financial representative for all missionaries and church planters
- Be a vital member of the Finance Team filling in where needed
- Assist with the annual audit and various other financial projects

The perfect fit:

- Has accounting experience, CPA preferred
- Works well on a team
- Communicates effectively
- Loves a good system and organizes everything, including the sock drawer
- Hears the unasked questions and loves to help answer them
